LOCATION:

Tucked away in a quiet corner of the Zandspruit Bush and Aero Estate, Villa Kudu is an oasis of luxury surrounded by pristine African bushveld and the magnificent backdrop of the Drakensberg Escarpment.

ACCOMMODATION:

Villa Kudu has four beautiful double bedrooms, all with king size extra-length beds, mosquito nets and air conditioning: The Master Bedroom comes complete with a gas fireplace for slightly chilly winter evenings and a built-in study nook with iMac computer and wireless printer. It has a private decked patio overlooking the bush and is equipped with a fantastic walk-in wardrobe and en-suite bathroom with bath, indoor and outdoor showers, double vanity and toilet. The Giraffe Bedroom has its own study area, private decked patio with views of the bush and a spacious en-suite bathroom with bath, inside and outside showers, double vanity and toilet. Outside, off the courtyard, are the Zebra and Cheetah Bedrooms in their own separate pavillion. They share a bathroom that's equipped with a bath, indoor and outdoor showers, double vanity and toilet. All bedrooms feature exquisite linen, bath towels and bathrobes and amenities from Godding & Godding - a renowned local producer of organic, natural cosmetics including body lotions and butters, shampoos, conditioners and body washes, soaps and room mists. The range used in Villa Kudu is Pure Silk and Baobab and can be purchased from Godding & Godding's shop in Hoedspruit.
